

Filipe de Mello Sampaio Cunha

Director at the Brazilian Water and Sanitation Agency- ANA (2022-2025), Filipe oversees areas related to Regulation of Water Resources Uses, Enforcement and Operations and Critical Events.

In the international cooperation field, he is ANA's delegate to the Water Governance Initiative (WGI) of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, to the International Water Association (IWA) and also to the World Water Council (WWC), at the College 2 - Governments and government promoted organizations.

He is a Public Management Analyst, from the Federal Prosecution Office and worked in the Chief-Prosecutor Office from 2013 to 2020. Filipe holds a Public Management and Water and Sustainability Management post-graduation and since 2016 has been collaborating with the National School of Public Administration (Enap), University of Brasilia (UnB) and Higher-Level School of the Federal Prosecution Office (ESMPU) teaching courses in public management. He is also collaboration actively for the 1st Latin-American Water Forum.