II. - amend the fund by-laws;

III. - resolve on the replacement of the managing institution;

IV. - resolve on the increase in the management fee charged by the managing institution, including the return to original fees that had been previously lowered;

X. - resolve on the merger, consolidation, spin-off or liquidation of the fund.

Sole Paragraph - As a result of statutory or regulatory precepts or at CVM's discretion, the fund by-laws may be amended outside of a general meeting, provided that notice of such change is made to the shareholders within thirty (30) days thereafter.

Article 27. - In addition to the annual meeting for the rendering of accounts, the general meeting may be called by the managing institution or by the shareholders representing at least five percent (5%) of the total outstanding shares.

Call Notice

Article 28. - General meetings shall be called by notice published in the periodical utilized for disclosure of information on the fund, or by letter against receipt addressed to each shareholder, stating the day, time and place of the meeting, as well as the agenda.

Paragraph 1. - General meetings shall be called at least ten (10) days in advance, considering the date of publication of the first call notice or mailing of letter against receipt to the shareholders.

Paragraph 2. - If the general meeting is not held, a second call notice shall be published or mailed by letter against receipt to the shareholders, at least five (5) days in advance.

Paragraph 3. - For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the second call notice may be published together with the first call notice or letter.

Paragraph 4. - Unless in the event of force majeure, the general meeting shall be held at the place where the managing institution is headquartered; if the meeting is held elsewhere, the notices or letters addressed to the shareholders shall clearly state the place of the meeting, which shall by no means be held other than at the venue where its headquarters is located.

Paragraph 5. - Irrespective of the formalities set forth in this article, a general meeting held with the attendance of all shareholders shall be deemed valid for all due purposes and effects.

Procedures and Resolutions

Article 29. - At the general meeting, which shall be instated with the attendance of at least one shareholder, resolutions shall be passed by a majority of shares represented by the shareholders present, each of such shares carrying one vote, with due regard for the provisions of paragraph 1 below.

Paragraph 1. - Resolutions on the matters set forth in article 26, III through V hereof shall be taken at first call by a majority of outstanding shares, and at second call by a majority of shares held by the attendees.

Paragraph 2. - Only the fund shareholders, their legal representatives or attorneys-in-fact legally appointed less than one year beforehand shall be entitled to vote at general meetings.

Paragraph 3. - The managing institution and its employees shall have no right to vote in general meetings, except for a fund organized exclusively for such employees.

Paragraph 4. - If there is more than one class of shares pursuant to article 12 hereof, the fund by-laws shall provide for the exercise of the voting rights ascribed to each class of shares at general meetings.

Article 30. - Resolutions taken at general meetings shall be disclosed to the shareholders within thirty (30) days thereafter.

Sole Paragraph - The disclosure set forth in the main section of this article shall be made by notice published in the periodical utilized for disclosure of information on the fund or by letter against receipt addressed to each shareholder.

Election of Representatives for the Shareholders

Article 31. - The general meeting may appoint, at any time, one or more representatives to inspect and keep managerial control over the fund investments, in defense of the shareholders' rights and interests.

Sole Paragraph - The shareholders may only be represented by an individual or legal entity that:

I. - is a shareholder or a professional specifically retained to pursue the interests of the shareholders;

- Item I reworded by CVM Instruction 393, of July 22 2003

II. - occupies no office or position in the managing institution, its controlling entity, companies directly or indirectly controlled thereby, affiliate companies, or other companies under common control;

III. - takes no position in the assignor of receivables that make up the fund portfolio.

- VIII. - promise preset earnings to shareholders;
- IX. - make, in its advertising or other materials offered to investors, any promise of earnings or income based on the past results of the managing institution itself or of third parties, or on the past performance of financial assets or other types of investment available on the financial market;
- X. - delegate its portfolio management powers, unless otherwise stated in article 39, II hereof;
- XI. - enter into borrowing or loan transactions, except being made for the acknowledgment of credits and the assumption of liabilities as a result of derivatives transactions;
- XII. - lease, loan, pledge or give in escrow the rights and other assets that make the fund portfolio, except for use thereof as margin in derivatives transactions.

Replacement of the Fund Manager

Article 37. - Upon notice published in the periodical utilized for disclosure of information on the fund or by letter against receipt addressed to each and every shareholder, the managing institution may resign from its position as fund manager, provided that a general meeting is concurrently called to resolve on its replacement or on liquidation of the fund, as provided for herein.

Sole Paragraph - In the events of replacement of the managing institution and liquidation of the fund, the rules in effect for civil or criminal liability of directors, executive officers and managers of financial institutions shall also be observed to the extent applicable, without prejudice to the rules on civil liability of the managing institution itself.

Article 38. - The custodian shall:

- I. - receive and review the documents supporting the financial, commercial and service transactions underlying the receivables;
- II. - validate the receivables vis-à-vis the eligibility criteria set forth in the fund by-laws;
- III. - arrange for physical delivery and financial settlement of the receivables evidenced by the instrument of assignment of rights and other supporting documents;
- IV. - arrange for custody, management, collection and/or safekeeping of the documents relating to receivables and other assets that make the fund portfolio;

- V. - maintain in perfect order, at its own expense, updated documentation relating to the receivables, based on predetermined methodology and readily available to independent auditors, the credit rating agency retained by the fund, and regulatory agencies; and

• Former Item VI renumbered as Item V by CVM Instruction 393, of July 22 2003

VI. - charge and receive, for the account and at the order of its clients, any payments, redemption values, or any other earnings from the instruments held in custody, depositing the respective proceeds in the deposit accounts of such clients.

• Former Item VII renumbered as Item VI by CVM Instruction 393, of July 22 2003

Paragraph 1 - Funds in which there is a relevant amount of receivables assigned and a major diversification of debtors, the custodian may carry out a check on the substance of the receivables to which Item I refers by means of sampling procedures, provided this possibility has been included in the by-laws of the fund.

Paragraph 2 - In the case described under the preceding § 1, the quantity parameters of the assigned receivables and for the diversification of debtors that will entail check of substance by sampling procedures must be expressly stated in the by-laws and in the prospectus of the fund.

Paragraph 3 - In the case described under the preceding § 1, if the limited average value of the receivables should not justify conducting check by sampling procedures, the by-laws of the fund may exempt the custodian from this duty.

• § 4 revoked by CVM Instruction 458, of August 16 2007

Paragraph 5 -

THIRD-PARTY SERVICES

Article 39. - Without prejudice to its own liability and that of its officer or managing partner in charge, the managing institution may retain the following services, by resolution of the general meeting of shareholders or as expressly provided for in the fund by-laws:

- I. - advisory services for analysis and selection of receivables and other assets to make up the fund portfolio;
- II. - portfolio management services from duly identified third parties, as per Attachment II hereto; and
- III. - custodial services.

Paragraph 1. - The management powers referred to in item II of this article are only delegable to legal entities domiciled or headquartered in Brazil, irrespective of their status as members of the National Financial System.

Paragraph 2. - If the fund manager is not accredited with CVM for the rendering of custodial services, an accredited institution shall be retained for this specific task.

- § 2 reintroduced with its original wording by CVM Instruction 446, of December 19 2006

Paragraph 3. - Any change in the portfolio manager's record data shall be reported to CVM within fifteen (15) days thereafter.

PORTFOLIOS

FIDC Portfolio

Article 40. - Effective ninety (90) days from commencement of the fund activities, at least fifty percent (50%) of its net equity shall be invested in receivables. The CVM may, at its sole discretion, extend this term for an identical period, provider the fund manager submits reasons that can justify such extension.

- Heading as reworded by CVM Instruction 393, of July 22 2003

Paragraph 1. - With due regard for the main section of this article, FIDC may invest the remaining net equity in bonds issued by the National Treasury or the Central Bank of Brazil, credits securitized by the National Treasury, state and municipal government bonds, bank deposit certificates and receipts, and fixed-income securities, bonds and assets other than shares in the Social Development Fund (Fundo de Desenvolvimento Social – FDS).

Paragraph 2. - In addition, FIDC may:

- I. - enter into repurchase agreements; and
- II. - trade in derivatives to hedge its cash positions, up to the limit thereof.

Paragraph 3. - For the purposes of item II of the preceding paragraph:

I. - transactions may be carried out both in markets administered by commodities and futures exchanges and in over-the-counter markets, provided that duly registered in asset registration and clearing systems authorized by the Central Bank of Brazil;

II. - the expenses actually incurred with non-cash margins, daily mark-to-market arrangements, premiums and operational costs to maintain positions in organized derivatives markets, including the net transaction values, shall be taken into consideration for calculation of the fund's net equity value.

Paragraph 4. - The receivables and other assets that make up the fund portfolio shall be held in custody, as well as registered and/or posted in a deposit account directly in the fund's name, in accounts specifically opened at the Special Clearing and Custodial System (Sistema Especial de Liquidação e Custódia – SELIC), in asset registration and clearing systems authorized by the Central Bank of Brazil, or in institutions or entities duly authorized by the Central Bank or Brazil or CVM to render these specific services.

Paragraph 5. - The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not apply to the fund's investments in financial investment funds or in funds for investment in financial investment fund shares.

Paragraph 6. - The fund may have unregistered receivables in its portfolio, pursuant to paragraph 4 of this article, for a period of one hundred and eighty (180) after this Instruction comes into force.

Paragraph 7. - The fund will only be allowed to invest in fixed-income securities if CVM has authorized the managing institution (or legal entity vested with management powers under article 39, II hereof) to exercise the activity dealt with in article 23 of Law No. 6385 of December 7, 1976.

Paragraph 8. - Without prejudice to the provisions of CMN Resolution No. 2801 of December 7, 2000 and to paragraph 4 of this article, the fund's investments in warrants or commercial contracts for the purchase and sale of products, goods and/or services for future delivery or performance, as well as in instruments or certificates representing such contracts, shall be secured by a financial institution or insurance company, in the latter case as provided for in specific regulations issued by the Private Insurance Authority (Superintendência de Seguros Privados – SUSEP) for the purpose of securing the automatic registration provided for under Art. 8 (1) of this Instruction.

- § 8 reworded by CVM Instruction 393, of July 22 2003

- §§ 9, 10 and 11 revoked by CVM Instruction 446, of December 19 2006

Art. 40-A. – The fund may acquire receivables and other assets from the same debtor, or co-liabilities of a same person or entity, up to a maximum of twenty per cent (20%) of its net assets.

Paragraph 1 - The percentage referred to in the caption may be increased if and when the debtor or the co-debtor:

I – is registered as a public corporation

II – is a financial institution or an equivalent thereto, duly authorized to operate by the Central Bank of Brazil, or

III – is a company the financial statements of which for the fiscal year immediately preceding the date on which the fund was set up were prepared in conformity with the provisions of Law 6404, of December 15 1976, and with the regulations issued by the CVM, duly audited by an independent auditor registered with the CVM, subject, however, to the provisions of § 3 of this Article 40A.

Paragraph 2 – In the case described under § 1 (III) of this Article 40-A, the financial statements of the debtor or co-debtor and the respective opinion of the independent auditor must be filed with the CVM by the managing institution, and must be updated on a yearly basis:

I – up to the date on which the fund is closed; or

II – up to the fiscal year in which the receivables for which the debtor or co-debtor is liable no longer represent more than twenty per cent (20%) of the receivables in the assets of the fund.

Paragraph 3 – The filing with the CVM of the financial statements and of the opinion of the independent auditor, as referred under § 1 (III) hereinabove, shall take place no later than three (3) months after the closing of the fiscal year, or on the same date on which it is placed at the disposal of the shareholders, if on any preceding date.

Paragraph 4 - As for the companies (sociedades empresariais) responsible for more than twenty per cent (20%) of the receivables that are part of the assets of the fund, these shall be exempted from filing with CVM and preparation of financial statements as referred under § 1 (III) hereinabove, provided the shares of the fund:

I – are the object of a public offer for distribution, the intended public is solely made up of companies pertaining to the same economic group and their respective managers and controlling shareholders, no trading of the shares on the secondary market being permitted; or

II – have a unit value equal to or in excess of one million reais (R$ 1 million) and are the object of a public offer destined for subscription by not more than twenty (20) investors.

Paragraph 5 – In the case described under § 4 (II) of this Article 40-A, the subscribed shares may only be traded by the holder before the completion of a period of eighteen (18) months following the closing of the distribution, if the trading is carried out between the shareholders or, if the shareholder disposes of all of its subscribed shareholders to a single investor.

Paragraph 6 - The brokerage institution must ensure compliance with the provisions of §§ 4 and 5 of this Article 40-A in any trading of the shares on the secondary market.

Paragraph 7 - For the purposes of the provisions of this Article 40-A, the debtor or co-debtor includes its controlling shareholder, the companies under direct or indirect control of the debtor or co-debtor, its affiliates and companies under common control.

- Art. 40-A included by CVM Instruction 442, of December 8 2006

Paragraph 8 - The percentages stated in this Article 40-A must be complied with daily, based on the net equity of the fund on the immediately preceding business day.

- § 8 included by CVM Instruction 446, of December 19 2006

Art. 40-B – The provisions set forth under Article 40-A as applicable to the receivables on account of their debtors and co-debtors, shall also be complied with in relation to the originators of the receivables referred to under Article 40, § 8, of this Instruction, if they are not guaranteed by a financial institution or insurer.

- Art. 40-B included by CVM Instruction 442, of December 8 2006

FICFIDC Portfolio

Article 41. - The institutions listed in article 32 hereof may organize and manage an investment fund intended to acquire shares in receivables investment funds, with due regard for the minimum investment requirement of ninety-five percent (95%) of its corresponding net equity.

Sole Paragraph - The organization and operation of the fund dealt with in this article, which shall be referred to as fund for investment in receivables investment fund shares, shall be subject to the rules contained herein, to the extent applicable, with due regard for the following:

Sole Paragraph . - Any change in the information dealt with in this article shall be reported to CVM by the first (1st) business day thereafter.

- Article 45 reworded by CVM Instruction 435, of July 5 2006

DISCLOSURE AND REMITTANCE OF DOCUMENTS

Article 46. - The managing institution shall make full and prompt disclosure of any material act or fact related to the fund, in order to ensure that all shareholders will have proper access to information that may have a direct or indirect bearing on their investment decision, as the case may be.

Paragraph 1. - Without prejudice to other events relating to the fund, relevant facts include the following:

I – any change in the risk ranking of classes or series of shares, as well, as the case may be, of the other assets included in the respective portfolio;

II – the change or replacement of third parties retained to provide custody, specialized consultancy or management services for the fund portfolio (Art. 39);

III – the occurrence of subsequent events that affect or may affect the criteria for the composition and the limits on diversification of the fund's portfolio, as well as the behavior of the receivables portfolio, in terms of the payment record;

IV – the occurrence of delays in the distribution of revenues to the fund shareholders.

- § 1 as reworded by CVM Instruction 442, of December 8 2006

Paragraph 2. - The information set forth in this article shall be published in the periodical utilized for disclosure of information on the fund, and shall be made available to the shareholders at the headquarters and branches of the managing institution as well as at the placing institutions.

Paragraph 3. - The managing institution shall make the publications dealt with herein always in the same periodical; any change shall be preceded by notice of this fact to the shareholders.

Article 47. - Within a maximum period of ten (10) days after the end of each month, the managing institution shall make the following information available to shareholders, at its headquarters and premises:

I. - the number of shares per shareholder, and respective value;

II. - the fund yield as of the last day of the reference month;

III. - the results of receivables and other assets in the portfolio, including the expected and actual performance thereof.

Article 48. - The managing institution shall make the fund's financial statements available to any interested party upon request, within the following maximum periods:

I. - twenty (20) days after the end of the reference period (for monthly financial statements);

II. - sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal period (for annual financial statements).

Sole paragraph – The fund manager shall send to the CVM over the Document Forwarding System available on the Internet homepage of the Commission the information requested under Items I and II above, according to the models available on the said page, and subject to the same terms.

- Sole paragraph included by CVM Instruction 435, of July 5 2006

Article 49. - The information or any other advertising material relating to the fund shall not be in disagreement with the fund by-laws and prospectus filed with CVM.

Sole Paragraph - If the advertising material has any inaccurate or improper statements that may lead investors into misjudgment, CVM may order the publication of proper corrections or clarifications, in equal size, through the medium utilized for publication of the original advertising material, duly accompanied by a warning that said correction or clarification is being republished at CVM's order.

Article 50. - Every information disclosed by whatever means and making express reference to the fund yield shall:

- I. - mention the date of commencement of the fund operations;
- II. - refer to at least one (1) calendar month, wherefore the disclosure of yields at a shorter period shall be prohibited;
- III. - cover at least the latest three (3) years or the period since the fund inception (if shorter);
- IV. - be accompanied by the value corresponding to an arithmetic averaging of the fund's net equity as of the last business day of each month, over the latest three-year period or since the fund inception (if shorter);
- V. - state, in every advertising material, the fund's ranking accorded by the credit rating agency, coupled with directives on how to obtain further information on such rating procedures.

Article 51. - If fund-related information is compared to the results of other funds in advertising materials, the dates, periods, source of information, comparative criteria and whatever else is necessary for proper assessment shall be disclosed in the same material.

Article 52. - Every disclosure of yield results shall inform, as the case may be, the exit or performance fees reducing the share value or the number of shares upon redemption, also stating the value and method for calculation of such fees.

Article 53. - Whenever the advertising material provides information on yield returns at past periods, the following warning shall be placed in a conspicuous manner:

- I. - past performance levels is not a guarantee of future returns; and
- II. - fund investments are not secured by the fund manager or by the Credit Guarantee Fund (Fundo Garantidor de Créditos – FGC).

Article 53-A. – The fund manager shall concurrently send to the CVM counterparts of any notices relating to the fund and disclosed to shareholders or to any third parties.
